

A conversation with Professor Derek Griffith

Hidden in plain sight: Why gender and men's health may be keys to achieving health equity

Co-chaired by Isaac Warbrick and El-Shadan Tautolo

4.30-6.30pm – Tues 16th April 2019
AUT South Campus – ME104
640 Great South Road, Manukau

Hosted by Taupua Waiora Centre for Māori Health Research, School of Public Health and Psychosocial Health, AUT

RVSP and more information:
heather.came@aut.ac.nz

Prof Derek Griffith is a leading social scientist focused on racial, ethnic and gender health equity. Dr Griffith is a Professor of Medicine, Health and Society and Founder and Director of the Centre for Research on Men's Health at Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tennessee.

